VOTO LATINO AIMS TO REGISTER 1 MILLION NEW VOTERS BY 2020.

NEWS & REPORTS

INTERESTED IN OTHER GW EVENTS?

Join the GW Upstart Team and CGI U alumni over hors d’oeuvres to learn more about this year’s conference and how you can become involved and deepen your Commitment to Action!

Join the GW Alternative Breaks program in their program-wide fundraiser Trivia Night! There is a $5/person buy-in for an evening of fun and knowledge!

October 17th in Funger Hall 108

GW ALTERNATIVE BREAKS TRIVIA NIGHT FUNDRAISER

Come participate, learn, and make your voice heard! Join #GWVotes online at the Mount Vernon Campus Quad and register to vote! Their team will be there to help you set up your ballot.

We have two exciting upcoming events with Vijy Srinivasan, Director of Partnerships and Programs for CiviWorks.

1. Civic Engagement and Public Service: The story of efforts to cast your vote and have your voice heard!

Wednesday, October 10th in Marvin Center 403

CIVIC LEADERSHIP DIALOGUES: BUILDING FOR SOCIAL CHANGE

2. Andrei Zolot, Program Fellow at the Nashman Center for Community Practice (Nashman Center Team)

As Fall Break comes to an end, we hope that you had a chance to recharge, take some time for yourself, and catch up on things that had to get done. Whether you traveled or stayed in DC, we are glad that you had a chance to enjoy all the sights and activities around the city!

Are you in need of volunteering opportunities after break? Take a look at some of the opportunities below! And in the following week, on Thursday, October 18th, from 11am-4pm, there will be a Trivia Night at the Mount Vernon Campus Quad where you can help the Nashman Center and enjoy food and refreshments. Make sure you cast your vote so your voice can be able to mail your absentee ballots (and we will cover the cost of stamps and envelopes) and vote early or as you can. Be a part of the movement. Assist and support members of the community in various ways.

Volunteer opportunities include:

1. The Nats Academy: SERVE AS AN AMERICORPS VISTA

The Nats Academy serves kids in Wards 7 & 8 of DC, in the 3rd-8th grade level. Help tutor a student, assist with classroom staff with their Scholar-Athletes who range in 3rd-8th grade. Help tutor a student, assist with classroom assistants, and career development aides. The Nats Academy is located at their Congress Heights campus. For more information, visit here or reach out to Rose Broberg (roosebroberg@gwu.edu). The Nats Academy’s mission is to improve the lives of children in DC; we hope that you will be able to join us!

2. National Youth Baseball Fund: VOLUNTEER WITH ONE TENT

Volunteer with Washington Nationals Youth Baseball Foundation to help out at their school locations in Ward 7 & 8. Help coach kids in baseball and softball in neighborhoods that may not have the same opportunities or resources. The Nats Academy’s mission is to improve the lives of children in DC; we hope that you will be able to join us!

3. Akridge of Hope: VOLUNTEER WITH ONE TENT

Akridge of Hope is an adult education public school located in Ward 6. This nonprofit is in need of classroom assistants, and career development aides to assist teachers with their students. The Nats Academy’s mission is to improve the lives of children in DC; we hope that you will be able to join us!

4. VOLUNTEER WITH ONE TENT: VOLUNTEER WITH ONE TENT

Serve on MLK Day of Service and Leadership if you are interested in volunteering with other GW students. MLK Day of Service and Leadership will take place on Monday, January 21st, 2019. Participant registration (individual or as a group) is open to GW students, GW staff, GW faculty, and GW alumni and community members are invited to participate in a day of service, leadership development, and interfaith dialogue. MLK Day of Service and Leadership can be found here.

5. In need of more?

Learn more about various opportunities for students, such as those that help improve the lives of children in DC. Whether you are interested in volunteering with the Nashman Center, American University, or the University of Washington, there are many opportunities for you to serve your community and make a difference! Read more about it here.

6. Elective Experiences: ELECTIVE EXPERIENCES

If you have the passion to make a difference in the world, there are many opportunities to get involved in GW’s service and leadership programs. If you are interested in participating in an elective experience, bring it up with your academic advisors and find a program that fits your interests. GW Service and Leadership can be found here.

7. GWSERVES: GWSERVES

GW Service and Leadership is a program for students who want to get involved in service and leadership opportunities. GW Service and Leadership is open to GW students, GW staff, GW faculty, and GW alumni and community members are invited to participate in a day of service, leadership development, and interfaith dialogue. MLK Day of Service and Leadership can be found here.

Sign up for Give-A-Gift! Give-A-Gift is a signature event and tradition at the Nashman Center. Give-A-Gift is a way for students, alumni, and community members to contribute to the Nashman Center’s mission of serving the Washington, DC community.

9. Shoplifters of Washington: GIVE-A-GIFT

Shoplifters of Washington is a non-profit organization that helps people who are struggling with substance abuse by providing them with employment and training opportunities. Shoplifters of Washington is located in Washington, DC, and they are always in need of volunteers to help with their programs. More information can be found here.

10. Career Development: GIVE-A-GIFT

Career Development at the Nashman Center aims to help students and alumni build their career skills and prepare for the job market. Career Development is located in the Nashman Center and they offer many different career development opportunities for students and alumni. More information can be found here.

11. Study Abroad: GIVE-A-GIFT

If you are interested in study abroad opportunities and want to find an opportunity that fits your interests, there are many opportunities to get involved in study abroad programs. GW Study Abroad can be found here.

If you are interested in finding more opportunities, there are many organizations that offer opportunities for students, alumni, and community members. You can find more information here. If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to the Nashman Center at nashman@gwu.edu or here.