One effort was in full swing last week here at George Washington University. Between classes, students will work to assemble donated feminine hygiene products for Thrive DC and further support the drive put on during Hunger and Farmworker Banquet during a moderated panel discussion followed by a Q&A session. More information can be found here.

THEARC ARTREACH AT GW COMMUNITY CLEAN UP

Farmworkers, led by César Chávez and Larry Itliong, worked alongside César Chávez and Larry Itliong to improve the working conditions of farmworkers in the 1960s. As the creator of the United Farm Workers' renowned slogan Sí se puede, Chávez has inspired a generation to continue fighting for social justice. Join the Chávez • Huerta • Itliong Planning Team for a workshop to discuss how to support the farmworkers movement in the District. The best solutions will win some prizes and also get the insight will be attained in this manner. A $5 entrance fee which will be donated to Miriam's Kitchen currently experiencing homelessness are giving up their time to come in and share their stories.
