To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

View this email
Got this as a forward?
Manage

With less than 40 days until the critical midterm elections, the NAACP unveiled an ambitious civic engagement and public service initiative. The organization aims to increase and maximize the Black vote, and effectively engage a population that will ultimately have the power to influence the outcome of the midterms and elections to come. Keep reading the article here.

Stay updated on all of the events happening on- and off-campus by checking out the GW ID between 10am-6pm, Monday through Friday. Learn more about the event and opportunity for audience questions. To learn more and register, click here.

GW ALTERNATIVE BREAKS TRIVIA NIGHT FUNDRAISER
Join Pete Souza - Barack Obama's White House photographer - in a conversation about his new book, "Obama: An Intimate Portrait." This free event will feature a screening of the award-winning 40-minute film "The President's Photographer." This is an opportunity for audience questions. To learn more and register, click here.

This free event will feature a screening of the award-winning 40-minute film "The President's Photographer." This is an opportunity for audience questions. To learn more and register, click here.

Wishing you a fulfilling week ahead,

Can you believe that we are halfway done with the semester? Don't worry because there are still exciting opportunities ahead. For more information, click here.

9:00am-5:00pm.

Can you believe that we are halfway done with the semester? Don't worry because there are still exciting opportunities ahead. For more information, click here.

UPCOMING GRANT DEADLINE
January 21st, 2019. Participant registration (individual and as a group) is due. Each individual sponsored receives a minimum of 3 holiday gifts: a clothing item, an educational or health care item, or as you can. Be a part of the movement. Assist students and our GW community (students, faculty, staff, and alumni) in the Fight for Literacy and the Fight for Education.

If you have any questions and to submit your application, click here.

Launched in 2003, Jumpstart is a national program for low-income families where trained college students tutor children ages 3-5 in early literacy and math skills. Children in Jumpstart programs have increased their reading scores by an average of 6.6 months for every year they participate in Jumpstart. As part of the GW celebration of the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. on Monday, January 21st, 2019, the Jumpstart Foundation is offering GW community members the opportunity to become Jumpstart volunteers and help make an impact in children’s lives.

Be Part of an Active Democracy
Exercise your right to vote! TurboVote is our new platform to connect you with your elected officials and track your community engagement. Exercise your right to vote! TurboVote is our new platform to connect you with your elected officials and track your community engagement. Exercise your right to vote! TurboVote is our new platform to connect you with your elected officials and track your community engagement. Exercise your right to vote! TurboVote is our new platform to connect you with your elected officials and track your community engagement.

JOIN US!
One Ten Real Health
Academy of Hope
NASHMAN NEWS

For more information, reach out to Charity Eddleman here.

BECOME A VOLO CITY KIDS FOUNDATION
Volunteer with the Volos City Kids Foundation. Their mission is to provide free support to underprivileged children in the Washington, DC area. They are a non-profit organization created by young adults and students to serve at-risk children in public and charter schools. Their current programs focus on reading, homework, and as always, if there is something you are interested in that isn't covered here or if you have an idea, please reach out to us.

If you have an immediate need for reading and math tutors, please contact Rose Broberg here.

If you are interested in the Nashman Center’s long-term service opportunities, please contact Charity Eddleman here.

BECOME A VOLO CITY KIDS FOUNDATION
Volunteer with the Volos City Kids Foundation. Their mission is to provide free support to underprivileged children in the Washington, DC area. They are a non-profit organization created by young adults and students to serve at-risk children in public and charter schools. Their current programs focus on reading, homework, and as always, if there is something you are interested in that isn't covered here or if you have an idea, please reach out to us.

If you have an immediate need for reading and math tutors, please contact Rose Broberg here.

If you are interested in the Nashman Center’s long-term service opportunities, please contact Charity Eddleman here.

JUMPSTART
Programs? Consider volunteering with Jumpstart. For more information, reach out to Charity Eddleman here.

If you have an immediate need for reading and math tutors, please contact Rose Broberg here.

If you are interested in the Nashman Center’s long-term service opportunities, please contact Charity Eddleman here.

ACADEMY NEEDS
Volunteer with the Washington Nationals Academy. Their mission is to help students reach their full potential, by providing them with the tools to succeed in their academic and extracurricular pursuits.

If you have an immediate need for reading and math tutors, please contact Rose Broberg here.

If you are interested in the Nashman Center’s long-term service opportunities, please contact Charity Eddleman here.

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT OPPORTUNITIES
Be part of an active democracy. Exercise your right to vote! TurboVote is our new platform to connect you with your elected officials and track your community engagement. Exercise your right to vote! TurboVote is our new platform to connect you with your elected officials and track your community engagement. Exercise your right to vote! TurboVote is our new platform to connect you with your elected officials and track your community engagement.

If you have any questions and to submit your application, click here.

If you have an immediate need for reading and math tutors, please contact Rose Broberg here.

If you are interested in the Nashman Center’s long-term service opportunities, please contact Charity Eddleman here.