DC's Voter Registration Deadline is Coming Up!

The DC Primary Election is coming up on June 21, 2022. Participating in primary elections is the best way for voters to select who they feel will best represent them and who they want to appear on the ballot in the general election.

The by-mail voter registration deadline and the online voter registration deadline is May 31, 2022. If you a permanent DC resident, you can check your voter status or register online here. If you are not a DC resident but want to get more involved in voting efforts at GW or in your home state, visit our website.

NASHMAN OPPORTUNITIES

The GW School of Business

GWSB Community Engaged Business Students

The Honey W. Nashman Center facilitates a community engagement section of BADM 4001, an experiential learning capstone course. Students serve approximately 5 hours per week, working on projects with local service organizations.

To enroll in this section of BADM 4001, students must first be selected by a community serving organization to work on a service project. Additional project positions will continue to be added in the coming weeks. For best consideration, students should apply by May 13, 2022.

The GWServes AmeriCorps VISTA Program is Hiring!

AmeriCorps

Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service

Graduating soon? Get paid to serve with the Nashman Center full-time through our partnership with DCPS and community-based organizations! The GWServes AmeriCorps VISTA Program builds capacity in Title I schools and the DC community by leveraging partnerships, supporting community engagement and outreach efforts, conducting program assessments, etc.

Our VISTA members serve for 1 year at a designated DC Public School, with DCPS Central Office, or at the Nashman Center. They receive a biweekly living allowance as well as an education award, paid student loan interest while serving, healthcare, and other benefits. Learn more and apply here!
