NASHMAN SPOTLIGHT

Nashman Graduate Assistant Maureen Albero Wins Beck Endowment Award!

2021-2022 Beck Endowment Recipient Named

The Elementary Education Program is pleased to announce the recipient for the 2021-2022 Beck Endowment Award—Maureen Ann Albero. Maureen is completing her internship year in Elementary Education and will be graduating with the Master of Education teaching degree in May 2022.

Maureen is a graduate of GW '21 with a major in English and Communication, a member of the English Honors program, and in her senior year, was selected to be GW's representative in the Campus Compact Newman Civic Fellows program, speaking on behalf of GW students committed to civic engagement and social change. In her English Honors program, Maureen's literary scope included storytelling, visibility, and representation. In her own words, Maureen hopes as a teacher that her students will be able "to write their own stories, appreciate their peers' narratives, critique others' stories, and challenge the messages they are pressured to accept." Maureen's extensive community service advanced her ability "to understand diverse perspectives, strengthened [her] ability to lead peers in service, and deepened their socio-cultural understandings." At the end of the Elementary Education MEEd program, it is with this passion that Maureen hopes to leave her mark on the children she will teach. Welcome to Elementary Education, Maureen!

Maureen Ann Albero

The Beck Endowment was created in 1996 from a gift by Dr. Gloria L. Horrworth, GSEHD professor emeritus, in honor of colleague, alumna, GSEHD faculty member and program director, Dr. Sylven Seid Beck.
