

National Voter Education Week Resource Guide

TurboVote

TurboVote makes sure students always know when elections are happening and have the information they need to vote with confidence. GW students can sign up to receive election reminders, get registered to vote and apply for their absentee ballot. Check out our TurboVote 101 videos on YouTube if you need any help with your account or registration.

Rock the Vote Map

This map allows you to see the restrictions in your state and where your state falls on the leader, slacker, blocker scale.

Change Your Voter Registration

A government database that allows you to check, update, or change your voter registration. It will link you to your state's webpage about voting.

Get Your Absentee Ballot

Vote.org has created this Absentee Ballot tool, broken down by state, to help you find when the requests for your absentee ballot requests are due and when the absentee ballot itself is due.

Find My State or Local Election Website Finder

USA.gov created this to help direct you to your state's election website. From there you can find more statewide voter guidance.

Vote 411

Created by the League of Women Voters Education Fund, Vote 411 provides you with information about every step of the voting process. You can register to vote, check your voter registration, and find what measures on your ballot.

Sample Ballot Lookup

Ballotpedia allows you to look up that address and access a sample ballot for your locality. This way you can feel familiar and comfortable with the voting process.

Voting Laws Roundup: July 2021

The Brennan Center for Justice has posted this site with many state's updated and restrictive voter guidelines.

What Redistricting Looks Like in Every State

FiveThirtyEight produced this updated tracker of proposed congressional maps.

Elected Officials

This USA.gov database gives you information on how to find your federal, state, and local representatives.

What is Gerrymandering? And How Does it Work?

A New York Times Article explain the origins of gerrymandering and how it has become a key legal issue in the United States.

Everything you need to know about Deep Canvassing

Deep Canvassing is all about using conversations to get people to get engaged in the voting process. This is an entire deep canvassing break down, which includes a script on how to talk to people.

Redistricting Reform

The Brennan Center for Justice has been focused on redistricting reform. This website includes quotes from their experts, analytics data, and resources all on this topic.

Campus Vote Project

Created by the Fair Elections Center, the Campus Vote Project is aimed at reducing barriers for students, faculty, and staff on college campus by educating them on voting measures in each state.

The Institute for Political Innovation

Director of Campaigns for the Institute for Political Innovation, Brian Cannon, will be a member of Thursday's workshop. This is his biography page, where you can also find more information on the Institute for Political Innovation.

OneVirginia2021

Executive Director at OneVirginia2021, Liz White, will be another participant at Thursday's event. This is the link to OneVirginia2021's staff page, where you can read Whites' bio and find more information on the organization.