NASHMAN OPPORTUNITIES

Spring Semester Community Engaged Scholarship Courses

Working with the local community through a course is an opportunity to make a difference in a whole new way. GW has so many great opportunities to engage with the local community through your course work - check out these examples of previous student projects. To find out which courses are available for Spring 2022, go to the Schedule of Classes and enter “CES” in the course attributes field.

COMMUNITY ENGAGED SCHOLARSHIP

There are around 80 Community Engaged Scholarship courses offered at GW each year.

Paid Summer Internship - Last Chance to Apply!

GW is partnered with the Emerson Collective this summer for an 8-week paid internship! Students from GW and other higher education institutions are encouraged to apply to join us here in DC for the ECYC Summer Internship. Students serving with GW will be part of the GW CIVIC CHANGEMAKERS program in which you will work in DC Middle Schools with children on a civic service-learning program to address concerns locally. Apply here!

Additional info is here! ECYC also hosts internships with National Geographic, Smithsonian, and the Emerson Collective. For the full listing of the many awesome opportunities with the Emerson Collective this summer please see this link. Housing on GW's campus and a stipend provided.

Funding through Public Service Grant Commission

Are you passionate about innovation and want to carry out innovative, feasible community service programs and ideas?

The Public Service Grant Commission is the Nashman Center's social innovation fund supporting GW students' innovative passions to make change in Washington, DC and beyond!

Grant awards provide funding for GW students' ideas to deliver solutions through projects in partnership with Washington, DC area partner organizations. Grants range from $500 – $2500 per individual or group project, per deadline.

Deadline 1: February 18, 2022
Deadline 2: March 22, 2022

The GWUpstart team will hold workshops and information sessions to help interested students with the application for the grants. Stay tuned! You can learn more on our website.
