HONEY W. NASHMAN CENTER FOR CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND PUBLIC SERVICE

"I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel." - Maya Angelou

MAKE YOUR COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT COUNT

The Nashman Center helps GW to record and report the service that we do as a community. Last year, we recorded 722,189 hours of service from more than 5,000 members across GW! This year make your service count and report service hours by Sunday, April 25th. Hours submitted by the deadline are eligible for this year's service awards.

Log into our community engagement platform, GWServes, using your NetID and password and start recording your impact today! If you have any questions or need assistance email us at gwserves@gwu.edu.

COMMUNITY OPPORTUNITIES

Washington English Center

Since 1993, Washington English Center, a community-based program, has offered English and literacy training to low-income adult immigrants in the greater Washington area using volunteer teachers and tutors. They are currently recruiting volunteer English teachers and one-on-one conversation and writing tutors for our upcoming spring 2021 virtual classes. The teaching term begins the week of April 12th (and runs through June 24th). Tutoring is rolling. Learn more.

McKinley Middle School Summer Acceleration Program 2021

Volunteers for the summer acceleration program will assist teachers with whole group and small group instruction, assisting lesson facilitation and one-on-one tutoring. Volunteer student teachers will have the opportunity to lead instruction both in the planning and facilitation phases, as well as receive feedback from administrators and experience teachers. UPCOMING EVENTS

Asian Americans and Political Invisibility: Addressing Stereotypes, Racism, and Misogyny with Guided Community Processing Space

April 7th | 4pm ET

Join us for an interactive presentation and community processing space. We will examine, together, recent and historical anti-Asian discrimination and violence in the United States. Topics for discussion may include: Asian Americans as an invisible minority; stereotypes that are framed as "positive" but are actually harmful; and the intersection of racism and misogyny. The presentation will be followed by a space for our community to process and discuss the impacts of recent and historical events. Register.

Scholarship & Social Justice Undergraduate Research Conference

April 8th - 9th

Harvard College is hosting the 6th annual Scholarship and Social Justice Research Conference. For student scholars, this is an opportunity to engage in academic dialogue with peers and faculty mentors. For faculty, this conference presents an opportunity to explore about how other disciplines conduct research that creates new knowledge and understanding about equity and social justice and to be inspired by the next generation of scholars. Register.

Bicentennial Celebration

Ongoing

The George Washington University's bicentennial is an incredible, historic milestone. February 9, 2021 is officially the 200th anniversary of when the United States Congress established our university's charter in 1821. Learn more.
