NASHMAN OPPORTUNITIES

MAKE YOUR COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT COUNT

The Nashman Center helps GW to record and report the service that we do as a community. Last year, we recorded 722,189 hours of service from more than 5,000 members across GW! This year make your service count and report service hours by Sunday, April 25th. Hours submitted by the deadline are eligible for this year's service awards, including the President's Volunteer Service Award.

Log into our community engagement platform, GWServes, using your NetID and password and start recording your impact today! If you have any questions or need assistance email us at gwserves@gwu.edu.

Rethinking DC Policing and Youth Diversion End of Year Academic Keynote

April 23rd, 2021 | 2:30 pm

As a culmination of the program's first academic year, we are delighted to have Mr. Jason G. Downs, Chief Deputy Attorney General of the District of Columbia speak to the GW community virtually. Mr. Downs has a wealth of legal experience as Founding Partner at Downs Collins, P.A., handling civil and criminal litigation in the District and nationally. Mr. Downs also previously spent nearly a decade at the Public Defender Service (PDS) for the District of Columbia, serving as lead counsel on dozens of jury trials. Mr. Downs has also taught at Harvard Law School and The University of Maryland School of Law. He holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Baltimore and a law degree from the University of Maryland. Register.

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHT

Grayson Hussong

Congrats on receiving the Undergraduate Studies Award!

"I started working with Little Friends For Peace through a Human Services & Social Justice course in the fall of my sophomore year. After that semester, I was hooked on their mission. The next semester I was able to take on the engageDC Site Leader role through the Nashman Center and continued my work while fostering a deeper connection between GW and LFFP. Through LFFP I found a connection to DC outside of Foggy Bottom and I am so grateful to have found a community that is so important in my daily life."
